John Di Crescenzo

Born in Guardiagrele, Italy in 1944, John's love of art developed from an early age. The close association with his country helped develop a strong affinity for the local landscape. John studied art at the Chieti Art Institute. He has concentrated his artistic talent exclusively in watercolour paintings and John's subject matter is today dominated by the influences of European subject matter, most notably Tuscan and Venetian landscapes. In recent years, John has been the recipient of numerous awards and conducts watercolour classes.

HONORARY JUDGE

Jon Dwyer

Jon is widely acknowledged as one of Australia's leading art experts and is a respected valuer. He has been in the art business for over thirty years coming from a three generation "Art" family. He has solid working experience with both Australian and international art.

Jon spent his formative years as Director of the Leonard Joel Painting Department and it was at Joel's that Jon established himself as a leading figure in Australian art. His ability to locate hard-to-find works and his talent for identifying the stars of tomorrow gained him a loyal following among collectors. He is highly skilled and experienced at both buying and selling art.

Joining Christie's International auction house in the 1990s, Jon headed up their Valuation Department. He was appointed to Christie's Board of Directors in 2000 and later became head of their Australian and International Painting Department. Jon was a senior auctioneer for Christie's.

Jon is an Approved Valuer for the Cultural Gifts Programme for the Australian Federal Government and has also been an Examiner for the Protection of Moveable Heritage.

Jon is now Managing Director of Dwyer Fine Art and he has valued and/or acted as consultant for many of Australia's most significant corporate and private collections, and law firms as well as acting on behalf of a number of key Australian public institutions. Jon has an extensive knowledge of all areas of the Australian art market from traditional, through to modern and contemporary and is frequently called upon by the financial and legal sector for his expertise in market analysis and authentication.

the whole person integrating spiritual development, academic success, cultural awareness and

Western Chances

Many families in Melbourne's West struggle to meet all the costs associated with school, let alone the extras needed to really progress the talents of our young people.

The objects of Western Chances are to:

"Provide scholarships to young people in Melbourne's West who do not have the finances, networks and resources to pursue their education and career goals and fulfil their potential".

We have found that the scholarships enrich the self-esteem of the young people, raise the hopes of the young people and their families and, reward teachers, schools and organisations for their belief in our young people.

Your support of Western Chances would be greatly appreciated.

The Archdiocese of Melbourne – Catholic Development Fund (CDF) is designed for investors who wish to promote the charitable purposes of the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne. We welcome your investment with CDF rather than with a profit oriented commercial organisation as a conscious commitment by you to support the Charitable, Religious and Educational works of the Catholic Church. CDF is not subject to the fundraising provisions of the Corporations Act 2001, nor has it been examined or approved by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission. Neither CDF nor the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Trusts Corporation for the Archdiocese of Melbourne is prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. Contributors to CDF do not obtain the benefit of the Depositor Protection Provision of the Banking Act 1983. The Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne has indemnified the CDF against any liability arising out of a claim by investors in the CDF through CDFPF Limited, which is a company established by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference. In essence, this means that your deposit, investment and any interest payable is guaranteed by the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne.
